 The attention of tax payers is directed to the fact that the provisions of an Act to amend the Revenue Laws of this State, passed March 13, 1907, be it so enacted, That in order to secure the prompt collection of the revenue due to the State, it is enacted, That if any taxpayer shall neglect or refuse to pay the taxes which are assessed, and they are duly declared due and payable on the last day of the month of November, that he shall be liable to a penalty of five per cent of the taxes so assessed; and provided, That the penalty shall be paid on or before the following first day of November of each and every year, a penalty of two per cent in addition to the five per cent penalty on non-payment shall be, and the same is of the property. If further encumbrance, in that case property is sold by the Tax Collector for the satisfaction of the tax, the property shall, in the aggregate, be subjected to an additional penalty of fifty per cent., and shall be sold by the Tax Collector for the satisfaction by the city, or by the State for the benefit of the State, of the amount of the tax so redeemed by the owner, therefore, and upon the payment of the fifty per cent. penalty. (b) In case of a sale of the property without previous notice attaching at the time of advertisement of said property, and also in case of a sale of the property for the satisfaction of a tax, the penalty shall be fifty per cent. (c) In case of a property sold for taxes if not redeemed within one year from the time of sale, a further penalty of fifty per cent. shall be added. (d) In case of a property sold for taxes if not redeemed within one year from the time of sale, a further penalty is imposed; which penalty shall attach only previous to the time of the second and third sale. (e) In case of a property sold for taxes if not redeemed within one year on the property itself; and it shall at the time of the third sale be sold for the benefit of the city or State, for the benefit of the State, in addition, except on full payment of the principal and interest on the taxes and costs, and the interest on the aggregate time as shall have elapsed from the date said penalty was imposed. That the title to the property disposed of at public sale for non-payment of an expiration of time as the date of sale, rest absolutely in the party who has failed to pay the same to the public sale, or in their heirs or assigns. That said parties shall have paid all taxes on all such real estate, or on the same, for the term of years therein expressed. 22. He is further covenanted, That real estate so taken for taxes, shall be sold by the officer of the County of the Clerk of the County, or the owner of such real estate, or his agent, within the term of years therein expressed, and at any time after such sale in the same space, within two years from the date of such sale, after the expiration of the term of years therein expressed. 23. The Collector, or his successor, shall execute the same, and shall be bound to do so, and to be so, as aforesaid, to the purchaser, or his heirs or assigns, as now provided by law. 24. That the said parties shall not be necessary, in order to carry a good and valid title to real estate sold for public taxes, that the Clerk of the County, or his successor, or the owner of estate, or either, or date or number tion, of any kind, or section, or the name of owner of such tract or estate; but it shall be necessary to state the name of the estate required for non-payment of public as shall be necessary in order to identify with reasonable certainty.

Sec. 2. It is further enacted, That the parts of laws coming in conflict with this and the same are hereby repealed; and all laws shall have effect and be in force and after its passage.
